About Neale Lavis & Mirrabooka; (EA NSW Hall Of Fame)

Neale Lavis (A Eurobodalla Local) was a member of the four-man Australian equestrian team that made history by winning gold in the three-day team event at the 1960 Rome Olympic Games.

Lavis, a former rodeo rider who farmed cattle, finished second to Morgan in the individual event. Lavis, 30 at the time, was the youngest of the Rome Olympic team. Riding 'Mirrabooka', he was almost faultless over the three days of competition. He bought the horse in Cooma for £100, and after the Olympics was offered £10,000 for him but refused to sell him.

Lavis won the inaugural Australian three-day event in Sydney in 1957 and the Great Auckland one-day event in 1960. He went to England in 1960 and competed successfully in jumping, fox-hunting and team events in Surrey, White City, and Badminton.

Lavis competed again at the 1964 Tokyo Olympic Games. In 1999, Lavis was awarded the Medal of the Order of Australia (OAM) for his service to the equestrian sports as a competitor, coach, and administrator, and to the community

Vale Roger Whyte;

Roger Whyte was a large and respected part of the horse community in the Eurobodalla and a much respected member of the NSW eventing community.

Roger and his lovely wife Karen Ann Whyte ran a two day eventing competition at their property 'Mirrabooka' for many years which attracted large name national & international eventing riders; they also held a junior eventing summer school in the Christmas holidays.

Roger and KA where also the founder for the 'Mirrabooka Riding Club'

Roger sadly passed in December 2016 and will forever be remembered by the horse and especially the eventing community

Judy Fasher "Roger Whyte was a modest gentle man with a burning passion to light the light for Junior Eventing riders. "
